The Prospectus is an important document that should be read in its entirety. Potential investors should read the entire Prospectus and, in particular, in considering the prospects for the Company, investors should consider the risk factors that could affect the performance of the Company. Investors should carefully consider these factors in light of their personal circumstances (including financial and taxation issues) and seek professional advice from a licensed investment adviser. No Shares will be issued on the basis of the Prospectus after that expiry date.

3. Persons to whom the offer is available

The electronic Prospectus on this Website must only be accessed from within Australia. If the electronic Prospectus is accessed by a person from outside Australia, it should not be downloaded or printed, nor should any application be made by that person for Shares in the Company, unless the Shares have been offered to an investor in any jurisdiction where to do so would not be in breach of the securities law requirements of the relevant jurisdiction.

No action has been taken to register or qualify the Prospectus, the Shares or the Offer in any jurisdiction outside Australia. The Prospectus does not constitute an offer of shares in any jurisdiction where, or to any persons to whom, it would be unlawful to issue this Prospectus or to make an offer of Shares. In particular, the Shares have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (US Securities Act) and may not be offered or sold in the United States except in transaction exempt from, or not subject to, registration under the US Securities Act and applicable US state securities laws.

The distribution of this Prospectus outside of Australia may be restricted by law and persons who come into possession of it should seek advice and observe any such restrictions. It is the responsibility of any applicant outside Australia to ensure compliance with all laws of any country relevant to that applicant's jurisdiction. Eligible shareholders who are nominees, trustees or custodians are therefore advised to seek independent advice as to how they should proceed.

4. Application for Shares

Subject to the lapsing of the exposure period, applications for Shares may only be made by completing and lodging the Application Form attached to or accompanied by a paper copy of the Prospectus in accordance with the directions specified in the Prospectus.
